DENNIS LEE Monday Breakfast Speaker

Loving Poems: Teaching Poetry

Ever since Alligator Pie appeared in 1974, Dennis Lee's poetry has been a vital part of children's lives in Canada and around the world. He's also known for writing the song lyrics for Jim Henson's Fraggle Rock, co-founding the House of Anansi Press, and serving as Toronto's first poet laureate, where he started the city's Blue Plaques program. His latest books for children are a boardbook edition of Alligator Pie, illustrated by Sandy Nichols, and the brand new collection Melvis and Elvis, illustrated by Jeremy Tankard (both HarperCollins).

RICHARD WAGAMESE Monday Luncheon Speaker

Reading: A Thousand Doorways

Richard Wagamese is the author of 13 books in the genres of fiction, memoir and poetry. He is Ojibway from the Wabseemoong First Nation in Northwestern Ontario and the 2012 recipient of the National Aboriginal Achievement Award in Media & Communications and the 2013 Canada Council Molson Prize in the Arts. He has been a professional writer for 35 years as an award-winning journalist, radio/television broadcaster, and author.

He is the first Native Canadian to win a National Newspaper Award for column writing among other honours such as the George Ryga Award for Social Awareness in Literature, the Canadian Author's Association Award for Fiction and the inaugural Burt Award for First Nations, Métis and Inuit Literature. He is the recipient of two Honorary Doctor of Letters degrees from Thompson Rivers University in Kamloops and Lakehead University in Thunder Bay.

He is an educator and renowned public speaker and lives in Kamloops BC.

SHARON ROBINSON Monday Dinner Banquet Speaker

Under the Same Sun: A Gift of Family Stories

Sharon Robinson is the author of many works of fiction and nonfiction for children. She has written several widely praised books about her father, baseball legend Jackie Robinson, including Jackie's Nine: Jackie Robinson's Values to Live By, Promises to Keep: How Jackie Robinson Changed America, Jackie Robinson: American Hero (children's biography), and picture books Testing the Ice and Jackie's Gift: A True Story of Christmas, Hanukkah. Sharon's other books include novels: Safe at Home and Slam Dunk! and, her most recent picture book, Under The Same Sun, is a 2014 Parents' Choice Award Winner.

Ms. Robinson is also the educational consultant for Major League Baseball (MLB). She manages Breaking Barriers: In Sports, In Life, a baseball-themed national character education curriculum that helps empower students to face obstacles in their lives.

Prior to joining MLB, Sharon had a 20-year career as a nurse-midwife and educator. She taught at Yale, Columbia, Howard, and Georgetown universities and is Vice Chairman of the Jackie Robinson Foundation. Ms. Robinson has earned a post-Master's Certificate in Teaching from the School of Nursing at the University of Pennsylvania and received many honorary doctorates. Sharon lives in Sarasota, Florida and New York City.

ERIC WALTERS Tuesday Breakfast Speaker

The Writer as Adventurer

Eric Walters began writing in 1993 as a way to entice his grade 5 students into becoming more interested in reading and writing. Eric's first published novel, Stand Your Ground, was created by a daily classroom reading of the manuscript.

Since that first creation, Eric has published 83 novels and picture books. His novels have all become best-sellers, have won over a hundred awards, and have been translated into numerous languages. Eric writes in a variety of genres, but often his stories incorporate themes that reflect his background in education and social work and his commitment to humanitarian and social justice issues. He donated the royalties from his book about Terry Fox, Run, to The Terry Fox Foundation, and was the person who conceived, and then actively promoted, The National Run Day in 2005 to mark the 25th Anniversary of Terry's run.

Over the past few years he has been the driving force behind The Creation of Hope (www.creationofhope.com) — an organization that serves orphans and needy children in Kenya.

ROSEMARY McCARNEY Tuesday Luncheon Speaker

Because I am a Girl: I Can Change the World

Rosemary McCarney is President and CEO of Toronto-based Plan International Canada, one of the largest international development agencies in Canada. After working with organizations like the World Bank, Canadian International Development Agency, the UN, and Street Kids International, she moved to Plan Canada. At Plan she led the initiative for the International Day of the Girl and spearheads the Because I am a Girl movement, a global initiative to end gender inequality, promote girls' rights, and lift millions of girls — and everyone around them — out of poverty. She has spent most of her career working on issues of concern to young people. A lawyer by training, she has put those skills to use in nearly 100 countries around the world. She is the author of two books for young people, Every Day is Malala Day and Because I am a Girl: I can change the world.

ADDITIONAL SPEAKER HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

WANTED — TEACHER NOMINEES FOR OUR 2015 ANNUAL READING AWARDS

Have you ever considered recognizing a deserving colleague by nominating him/her for our annual reading awards? Each year, our Association honours exceptional contributions by educators in the field of literacy.

Please note that for 2015, we are accepting nominations from all school boards in Ontario and will be selecting a total of three Reading Award winners. Two awards will be given to educators from the association's founding school boards, T.D.S.B. and T.C.D.S.B., and a third award will be given to an educator from any other school board in Ontario.

Presentations will be made at the Reading Awards Dinner Banquet, taking place on the evening of Monday, February 9th, 2015. Winners will be awarded with a full conference registration, including two tickets for the special event and a $100 gift certificate to purchase books.

Nominations in writing (paper or electronic) will be accepted until 5 p.m. on Friday, December 12, 2014. They can be submitted electronically (eyes@readingforthe loveofit.com), by fax to 416-444-9282 or mailed to EYS Reading Association, 1315 Lawrence Avenue East, #309, Toronto, ON, M3A 3R3.

Please include the name of the school where the nominees work along with full contact details.
